

RW Attorneys a well-respected law firm has a vacancy for a Senior Legal Practitioner. This position offers great exposure and career progression.

Experience:

- The candidate should possess firm legal expertise and has to espouse leadership qualities.
- Demonstrates sound legal technical skills
- Manage matters from inception to conclusion
- Provide legal advice and opinions
- Draft and review legal documents
- Collaborate with other legal professionals on matters
- Build, manage and maintain client relationships

NB: The candidate is expected to create state-of-the-art practice within the firm, by demonstrating leadership in managing business development opportunities; finding quality leads and converting them into clients, building long-term relationships and cultivate service opportunities by leveraging the portfolio to deliver breakthrough results to clients within their industries.

Minimum requirements:

- Minimum of 8 years or more post-admission experience in a law firm
- Right of appearance in the High court
- Demonstrate sound legal technical ability, knowledge of South African Law applicable to all types of South African Courts and Tribunals
- Proven experience in conducting workshops, training and presentations
- Excellent Practice Management skills
- Strong leadership skills
- Business acumen
- Strong work ethic
- Strong Negotiation skills
- Good interpersonal and communication skills (verbal and written)

Shortlisted candidates will be required to provide a portfolio of works which may include, legal opinions, articles, copies of judgements and rulings in matters that they have worked on.

QUALIFICATION/S:

- LLB Degree.

REMUNERATION:

Negotiable

E-Mail CV's to: hr@rwafrica.com
Attention: Thelma Molefe